LAW ENFORCEMENT ANTI TERROR & PREPAREDNESS TRAINING

THURSDAY OCTOBER 11TH THROUGH SUNDAY OCTOBER 14TH

Gary Drake of Elwha Police Department in conjunction with Domestic Security Service is proud to host four days of intense training. Individuals representing Federal, Police and Military agencies may apply. This will be a no nonsense event with little sleep and lots of challenges. We have arranged for trainers from a variety of backgrounds, police, military and the private sector. As you know, our first responders are the first line of defense for our country on U.S. soil. We have all seen events in recent history (Katrina, 9.11 Columbine, Beslan etc.) that show us we must learn to be prepared for and respond to any type of an event. We feel it would be better to make your mistakes during training, not when our children's lives and our countries future may be at stake. Expect the unexpected during this training, know that you must always be prepared!

Training will take place at the Elwha Police Department facility near Port Angeles Washington. A large wooded area is available to us and will allow for additional challenges. We will be using Sim weapons, with a handful to share. If you have not fitted your own weapon, try to do it before this event, you will be more comfortable!

After periods of training, you and or your team will be given a brief of the challenge you face. In some cases it will be detailed, in others it may be vague, as it is on the job. You may need to stop an active shooter, breach a mock nuclear facility to stop a terrorist cell from destroying it, serve a warrant at a meth lab in the woods, stop a terrorist group from blowing up a school, stop a home invasion (at your house), stop terrorists from cutting off one of your brothers heads as the clock ticks.....I think you're starting to get the idea! Bring you're "A" game, you'll need it! If your still developing it, that's ok as well. We are all students of this game, and even the best face new challenge each day.

We ask that you bring all of the equipment you need to support yourself in this activity. October can be cold and wet. Carry water and enough portable food for at least twelve hours, as field events may go long. Bring a compass, flash light and whistle. For the range you will need to bring 300 rounds for your pistol and 100 for your assault rifle.

This training will be first come first served, as we have only a limited number of slots for this training, so register now. We will only be asking for donations from you or your department (you can use $100 per day, per person as a bench mark), we don't want cost to be the reason our nations best can't attend this unique training experience.

Names of hotels in the area will be listed on the domesticsecurityservice.com web site in the near future or for additional information call Mike Rocha at 425-870-0317.

Domestic Security Service is a company that is dedicating itself to the preservation of the democratic way of life. We feel through education and training we will make a difference in our future and the future of generations to come. If the training we assist in facilitating helps one person, it's worth the effort. Our country is in a fight for its life, and it will not be on our watch and without effort that it will parish from this earth!

The men and women that represent Domestic Security Service come from a wide variety of experiences, military, police and private sector. We work in and outside the United States to promote our effort.

We are available for consultation or Red Team events anywhere, anytime, free of charge if need be. Call, e-mail, or visit our website, domesticsecurityservice.com for contact information.
